

Legacy pledge form

With Befrienders Worldwide, legacies go a long way because the training and knowledge provided is constantly removing the taboo surrounding suicide and changing communities. As our service is mostly delivered by volunteers you can be sure that every penny is spent wisely... In addition, you may find that by including a charity in your Will it is possible to reduce the amount of inheritance tax which your beneficiaries would have to pay and that a residuary legacy is the most effective way of supporting charities while ensuring your family is still provided for...
